

CIVIL SERVICE RAMBLERS DISCLAIMER INFORMATION FOR CLUB MEMBERS

The walking undertaken by Civil Service Ramblers involves challenge, which in turn implies an element of risk taking. Participation in the Club's events may also carry some risk. While walks will be led by competent leaders, accidents can happen. Walking, and hill walking in particular, is an activity which carries with it a danger of personal injury or death. Intending walkers should carefully consider this aspect of their involvement before going out on walks. Participants in Club events need also to consider carefully the risks involved. Personal accident insurance will be provided by Civil Service Ramblers¹, for members going on Civil Service Ramblers walks or participating in Civil Service Ramblers events. Walkers and participants may wish to obtain their own additional personal insurance and cancellation insurance.

Civil Service Ramblers holds civil liability insurance.

Note 1. Medical condition

The walking undertaken by Civil Service Ramblers often involves strenuous physical exercise. Members can be exposed to cold and wet conditions and will need to carry a loaded rucksack on their backs for several hours. Members should seriously consider their personal health and fitness before undertaking walks. Anyone suffering from or ever having suffered from any medical condition, illness, injury or allergy, or who is pregnant, should consult their doctor regarding the suitability of their participation. Members with concerns should only walk following positive advice from their Doctor and should make their condition known to the Walk Leader before each walk commences.
