CIVIL SERVICE RAMBLING CLUB
MEMBERSHIP FORM

Background

The Civil Service Ramblers Club has been set up to promote health in the NICS in the form of walking. Appropriate clothing must be worn and safety ADHERED to at all times. The walks leader has the right to cancel or change the route in ADVERSE conditions. Membership of the Club is open to all civil servants and past civil servants who are members of the Northern Ireland Civil Service Sports Association (NICSSA), or those organisations allied to the NICSSA. It is also open to other individuals, subject to the approval of the Club Committee. All members of the Club will be required to belong also to NICSSA (or an affiliated body) – membership of NICSSA can be arranged shortly after you have joined the Rambling Club. Membership of NICSSA brings certain benefits to individuals and also to the Club – details of these benefits to members can be found on the NICSSA web-site. All existing and prospective members are required to complete the following details. All new or prospective members are also required to read carefully and sign a disclaimer form and return this form to the Club's Membership Officer. The Club has a website where photographs show members. If you do not want yourself included in such photographs, the Club would request you tick the appropriate line below. Should this be your wish, it would be helpful that you take positive steps to not be included in photos that the member taking the photo, may at a later stage wish to have included on the website.
